DEPARTMENT ACADEMIC REVIEW MEETING

The Department of Science and Humanities conducted a Department academic review meeting on December 15. All first-year faculty members attended the meeting. Dr. Arul Kulandaivel, the head, led the meeting with Principal Dr. Srinivasan Alavandar and IQAC Coordinator Dr. Anand. During the session, the principal asked faculty members with low results to meet in person, bringing along the necessary documents. The principal emphasized exploring various teaching methods, proposed evening coaching for hostel students, and stressed the importance of identifying medium and slow learners and providing extra coaching and mentoring to help them perform better in the upcoming IAT II exam. On a positive note, the principal appreciated plans, strategies, and monitoring, commending the efforts of the department, and he advised that the work commitment of a few faculty members must be improved. And also, he acknowledged the completion of 900+ online certifications and appreciated their commitment to additional learning.

PARENT TEACHER MEETING

On December 16, 2023, a parent-teacher meeting was successfully presided over by principal Dr. Srinivasan Alavandar and led by Dr. Arul Kulandaivel, the head of the Science and Humanities Department. At the meeting, more than 90 parents attended. Dr.Kavitha AP/Chemistry coordinated the meeting.Mr. Kamesh, AP/English, hosted the meeting and gave the welcome speech after the invocation. Ahead of the PTM, the department head presented the department performance report, and the institution's dignitaries awarded certificates to the top 20 students in IAT-1. The S&H department's fast progress and steady progress along the path were acknowledged by the principal. In this short time frame, no college can accomplish this. The S&H department's attempts to get pupils involved in extracurricular activities were appreciated by parents, who gave favorable feedback on the teaching-learning process. At the end of the meeting, they clarified doubts, shared views, and had a productive discussion with the HOD and principal. Overall, everyone, including the principal, and parents, felt impressed by the S&H department's dedication to developing students' talents and progress.
